

Complaints and Appeals Policy

In accordance with Standard 6 of the Standards for RTOs 2015, Safety Corp is committed to providing our staff, students and stakeholders the best possible work and study environment. We understand that on occasion, there may be instances of dissatisfaction, and Safety Corp will acknowledge, record, address and rectify promptly. In such instances, Safety Corp will encourage staff, students and/or stakeholders to provide Safety Corp with feedback so that a resolution can be found. Any complaints and appeals received provides an opportunity for Safety Corp to review and improve our processes and practices.

Standard 6. Complaints and appeals are recorded, acknowledged and dealt with fairly, efficiently and effectively.

Clause 6.1 Safety Corp has a complaints policy to manage and respond to allegations involving the conduct of:

- a) Safety Corp, its trainers, assessors or other staff*
- b) a third party providing services on Safety Corp's behalf, its trainers, assessors or other staff*
- c) a learner of Safety Corp.*

Clause 6.2 Safety Corp has an appeals policy to manage requests for a review of decisions, including assessment decisions, made by Safety Corp or a third party providing services on Safety Corp's behalf.

Clause 6.3 Safety Corp's complaints policy and appeals policy:

- a) ensure the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the complaint and appeal process*
- b) are publicly available*
- c) set out the procedure for making a complaint or requesting an appeal*
- d) ensure complaints and requests for an appeal are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable*
- e) provide for review by an appropriate party independent of Safety Corp and the complainant or appellant, at the request of the individual making the complaint or appeal, if the processes fail to resolve the complaint or appeal.*

Clause 6.4 Where Safety Corp considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, Safety Corp:

- a) informs the complainant or appellant in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required*
- b) regularly updates the complainant or appellant on the progress of the matter.*

Clause 6.5 Safety Corp:

- a) securely maintains records of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes*
- b) identifies potential causes of complaints and appeals and takes appropriate corrective action to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of reoccurrence.*

Clause 6.6 Where Safety Corp is an employer or a volunteer organisation whose learners solely consist of its employees or members, does not charge fees for the training or assessment, and does not have in place a specific complaints and appeals policy in accordance with clauses 6.1 and 6.2, the organisation has a complaints and appeals policy which is sufficiently broad to cover the services provided by Safety Corp.

Complaints and Appeals Policy

- Safety Corp is responsible for managing the complaints and appeals process
- All complaints and appeals are heard and resolved typically within three weeks of receipt
- If Safety Corp considers that more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, the complainant or appellant will be informed of the reasons for the extended timeframe in writing and will be regularly updated on the progress of the matter
- Safety Corp will maintain and document all complaints and appeals received, actions taken and decisions made to the Continuous Improvement Register as Safety Corp view all complaints and appeals as opportunities for continuous improvement
- Safety Corp will undertake a continuous improvement process that includes reviewing both the details in the Complaints and Appeals Register, and the complaints and appeals policy and procedures, and taking appropriate corrective action to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of the same problems occurring again.

A staff, student and/or stakeholder can complain informally and formally about any aspect of our dealings with them, and the Student can appeal any decision we make, including assessment decisions.

Examples of complaints or appeals may include but not limited to the following:

Complaints:

- Access and equity, bullying, discrimination and harassment
- Administration process
- Course information
- Course duration / training
- Customer service
- Enrolments / withdrawing from a course
- Handling fees, refunds and cancellations
- Insufficient training provided
- Lack of policies, procedures and guidelines Learning materials
- System / Portal is slow
- Venue, equipment, WHS

Appeals:

- Students appeal against assessment outcomes and course progression

Complaints Procedure

In the first instance that:

- a student is unhappy or dissatisfied with an aspect of our service delivery, they should speak to their trainer in an attempt to quickly resolve the issue
- staff are unhappy or dissatisfied with an aspect of company policy and procedures, they should speak to their direct supervisor
- an employer is unhappy or dissatisfied with an aspect of our service delivery, they should speak with the Chief Operating Officer or Managing Director

If the issue is with their:

- trainer and the student feels that they would prefer not to approach the trainer, then the Compliance Manager is available to discuss the issue
- direct supervisor and the staff feels that they would prefer not to approach their direct supervisor, they should consult the Chief Operating Officer or Managing Director and where necessary staff files are updated

Should the complaint or appeal not be resolved in the first instance, then the student is requested to formally lodge a complaint or appeal by completing the Complaints Appeals CI Form available for download from Safety Corp's website.

This formal complaint or appeal will be entered into the Continuous Improvement Register for review process.

Should the nature of the complaint refer to criminal matters or where the welfare of Students is in danger, Safety Corp will, with the permission of the Student, seek assistance from other authorities such as The Police, Legal Representative or other parties as appropriate. Student confidentiality will be maintained at all times as is consistent with Federal and State Law.

Engagement of external assistance will be the responsibility of Safety Corp and actions will be recorded in the Continuous Improvement Register. A formal interview will be held with the Student, the trainer (if appropriate) and Safety Corp. If this is unable to resolve the issue, then the issue can be escalated to a mutually agreeable independent person or panel. The complainant or appellant will be provided with a formal written statement of the resolution of the complaint or appeal; this will state the reasons for the decision.

Complaints and Appeals Policy

The suitable independent person or panel will need to be agreed upon by both the Student and Safety Corp, this could include another external Trainer Assessor, or it could include independent commercial mediators such as Resolution Institute and InterMEDIATE.

- Resolution Institute can be contacted via www.resolution.institute
- Intermediate can be contact via www.intermediate.com.au

Costs for the independent person or panel, must be pre-approved by Safety Corp. Safety Corp will negotiate the identification and engagement of the mutually agreed person or panel. The data entry responsibility lies with Safety Corp.

The complainant or appellant will be provided with a formal written statement of the resolution of the complaint or appeal; this will state the reasons for the decision.

ASQA provides information on its complaints handling process at www.asqa.gov.au/complaints

Please note, that the ASQA website advises that some complaints about refunds may be directed to the consumer protection agency in your state or territory:

- Australian Capital Territory: ACT Fair Trading
- New South Wales: NSW Fair Trading
- Northern Territory: Northern Territory Consumer Affairs
- Queensland: QLD Fair Trading
- South Australia: SA Fair Trading
- Tasmania: TAS Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading
- Victoria: VIC Consumer Affairs Victoria
- Western Australia: WA Consumer Protection

Appeals Procedure

An appeal may be based on procedures not followed and/or the assessment was not considered on its academic merits.

Appeals against the outcome of an assessment must be made within five (5) working days of receiving the assessment outcome. Students will be required to complete the Complaints Appeals CI Form and submit the completed form to Safety Corp's Compliance Manager.

Note: Assessment appeals that are submitted outside this time frame will not be considered.

Students will need to state the grounds on which the appeal is made and must contain an outline of why the student believes the original assessment decision is inappropriate.

The Compliance Manager will review the initial assessment decision, the student's completed Complaints Appeals CI Form, and consulting with the trainer/assessor responsible for the disputed assessment and enter information of the appeal submission to the Continuous Improvement Register.

Appeals may be escalated to the Managing Director as required. If, after this process, further information is required, the Managing Director will seek additional clarification from the student.

The student will be informed of the outcome of the assessment appeal typically within ten (10) working days of its lodgement (identified as the date of receipt of the appeal by Safety Corp).

The decision of the Managing Director will be final and no appeals of this decision shall be made.

The Continuous Improvement Register will be updated with details regarding the appeal (student details, course, outcomes and relevant actions taken).

By Safety Corp Pty Ltd, Registered Training Organisation (RTO) 91694